

FOOD FOR THOUGHT: Elizabeth Cornaro and Chris Littlefield, from Foodie's Urban Market, recently met with several focus groups to hear what shoppers are looking for in a market. Cornaro, marketing/graphics coordinator, met with residents at the Duxbury Bay Maritime School, Duxbury Senior Center, Bay Farm Academy and South Shore Conservatory. The DBMS Focus group included Foodie's group coordinator Chris Littlefield, DBMS representatives Lizzi Runci, Zach Runci, Chelsea McGuire, Chris Protasewich, Cam Mullins and Elizabeth Cornaro, marketing coordinator for Foodie's. Front row: Maria Battista, Abigail Armstrong, Julia Leonard, Pete Muncy, Eric Bosworth and Meredith Stevens.

Newcomers' Club News

Family Social – On Saturday, June 23 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., we will be having our Family Social at the Keene Street Playground. There will be t-shirt decorating, kite-flying, games and ice cream. This event is open to all Newcomers and those interested in joining the club. To help with this event, please call Chrissy Record at 781-934-2093. Rain date is Sunday, June 24.

Duxbury Fourth of July Parade Float – Contact Debby Gayoski, 781-837-2975, if you are interested in helping with the float this year. We need adults to help decorate the float as well as children to ride on it the day of the parade.

Discounted Group Tickets – Check out June's newsletter and get all the latest group ticket sale offers from a ballgame in Brockton to a dinner and comedy show in the North End. Call Kim Panton at 781-934-7789 for more information.

✓ Claire Cook Book Reading

The Duxbury Free Library and Westwinds Bookshop will present author Claire Cook, author of Must Love Dogs, on Wednesday, June 20 at 7 p.m. in the library's Merry Meeting Room. Cook will read from her newest novel, Life's A Beach, about Ginger Walsh, a woman who finds herself single at 41 and back home living in the family FROG (finished room over the garage) in the fictional town of Marshbury. Free tickets are available at Westwinds Bookshop and the library circulation desk. Tickets are required for admission. For more information, call 1-781-934-2721 or visit duxburyfreelibrary.org.

Free Access to Genealogy Websites

The Duxbury Free Library is offering patrons access to the Ancestry.com website free of charge; click on the Ancestry icon from the desktop of the public Internet computers on the upper level of the library. Ancestry.com is available for library access only, but two other genealogy databases are accessible from home: Heritage Quest and My Trees. From the Library's website, select Research Databases and then choose between the two databases under Genealogy and enter your Duxbury library card number.
